STORY: "13" takes place in a suburb in the Midwest at a middle school. A musical with a cast of 13, all 13 years old. The eyes & ears of the show is EVAN. EVAN has just moved from NYC. On his first day, he decides to send out invitations to the coolest kids in school for his Bar Mitzvah, which is six weeks away. We watch as the kids get the invitations, try to figure out who EVAN is, and what happens at a Bar Mitzvah. The show is about belonging, about realizing who you are vs. who you want to be, about the challenges of wanting to be treated like a grownup when you're still just a kid, and about the obligations of "becoming a man."
